

FROM THE BEACH

TO THE STAGE

Introduction

The Lanikai brand celebrates a place where heaven meets the ocean and east meets west. Our products promote the joy of music making on instruments that have been created from a confluence of cultures, time and place. Lanikai is dedicated to all levels of musicians, from players just starting out to multi-instrumental stage performers to legends in pop music, allowing them all to uniquely express themselves through our instruments.

We seek to create instruments that balance the traditional with the innovative, the beginners with the experts, the ornate with the simple, all while constantly striving to achieve our fundamental goal.

Exotic Series

A ZEBRA AND A MONKEY WALK INTO A BAR . . .

Lanikai has taken us to every part of the globe. Being the wood junkies that we are, we cannot resist finding new materials to experiment with. From these travels we came across Zebrawood and Monkey Pod. Each produced a fresh tone unique to the woods distinct resonance capabilities. Unadorned by synthetic enhancements, this series captures the pure essence and beauty of the natural world.

TRADITIONAL AND ANYTHING BUT.

Koa is the wood of choice for traditional ukulele craftsmen. The crisp tone produced is the prize at the end of the tunnel for many players. This is why we created the NK series with its highly figured natural solid koa top and koa back and sides. However since traditions are made to be broken we also developed the SM series. The difficulties we experienced when working with spalted mango were more than worth the tone that was created.

BANJOLELE, BANJULELE, BANJO UKE...
It ALL MEANS FUN.

Popularized in the roaring twenties and thirties, the banjolele answered the call from popular performers for greater volume. From there the unique banjolele tone solidified itself into the lexicon of ukulele music and remains instantly recognizable today.

Mahogany Series

THE JACK OF ALL TRADES

The greater density of solid mahogany creates mid-range tones and a balanced sound. This wood is known as the “Jack of All Trades” at Lanikai because it is very versatile- you can play any style and it is guaranteed to sound great.

Quilt Ash Series

Ash has been long known as a wood of choice for instrument builders when a strong attack is necessary, which is generally described as “spank.” We came across a highly figured batch of ash that created a distinctive tone. It worked best when combined with a solid spruce top which rounded out the tone, giving fingerpickers the depth they are looking for.

Curly Koa Series

It curls because it can.

Used to make ukuleles for over a century, rare Hawaiian Koa wood is especially prized for its distinctive curly grain. Grown mostly on the big island of Hawaii these woods have a crisp tone unlike any other.

Koa Packs

The Koa packs are all about giving consumers what they asked for, a well appointed Koa uke with a rosewood fingerboard and bridge, gold plated die cast tuning machines, abalone rosette, body binding and fingerboard board inlays, a gig bag, and a clip-on tuner at a killer price. A custom wide bone nut was used to increase the string spacing, making these ukuleles more comfortable for guitarists who are trying out the ukulele for the first time. This pack represents unbeatable value from Lanikai.
